to your event

30 hours away from the office... Adventure in Alsace

An idea for an adventure for a group of 15 to 50 people...

A bus will be waiting at the entrance to your premises to whisk you away on a discovery tour of Alsace, its wines and its countryside...

The city of Strasbourg...

On the road leading to Alsace we will provide you with a picnic hamper (enhanced, improved and upgraded!).

By 2.30 p.m. at the latest, you will be in Strasbourg.

A guided tour of the Old French district, along the banks of the River Ill and the surrounding area.

On the wine road...

When you return to the bus, you will head off in the direction of Colmar. There you will meet Colmar's only independent owner-winegrower. He will show you round his unusual vineyards, as well as his wine cellar and of course the wines.

The Hotel ****

A few kilometres from Colmar, rooms will be reserved for you in this four-star Château-Hotel****, overlooking the medieval city.

Check in, then take a break of about one and a half hours, time to relax in this location which inspires peace and tranquillity.

You will then meet in the hotel foyer and be off again, this time for a soirée... with wine

La Confrérie (The Brotherhood)

In the courtyard of the château you will be greeted by the sound of hunting horns.

Next you will take your place in the Château's Great Vault to join in a formal wine tasting presented by a delegation of the Grands Conseillers de la Confrérie (the Grand Counsellors of the Brotherhood) in ceremonial dress.

Some members of your company will be inducted into the Brotherhood. The new Apprentice Brothers and Sisters will be presented with ribbons, medals and diplomas.

Then dinner in the Capitulaire room, in a neo-renaissance setting overlooked by portraits of the Grand Masters.

Menu « Harmonie des Arômes » (Aromatic Harmony Menu)

Duck foie gras semi-cooked with figs,
Spiced bread

Monkfish médaillons roasted with citronella, served with a sauce of saffron pistils
Vegetables

Veal mignon with mushrooms, regional potato galette,
Side dish of vegetables

Cheese board with three kinds of cheese

Apple and cinnamon entremet, Baerawecka ice cream,

Almond biscuits

Drinks included :

A wine specifically chosen for each course

Mineral water

coffee

The Following Day

The schedule for the final leg of your journey will be as follows :

On the road home you will head in the direction of le Bas-Rhin, where you will meet a wine merchant and grower.

The principal business of this family enterprise, founded in 1563, is the production of Alsace white wine. They have received many wine-producing awards, including the Gold Medal of the Brotherhood.

They will welcome you to their charming cellar, where you can taste an assortment of Crémant d'Alsace vintages and discover some rare wines such as the Klevener de Heiligenstein and the Ottrot red.

An Alsace gastronomic lunch

We will then return to the Strasbourg area for lunch in a typical Alsace restaurant.

This 18th century building, formerly a traditional post office, has been converted and is now highly ranked in the world of gastronomy.

Choice of dish

Crab cakes, avocado and pickled tomato, basil oil

Game and foie gras terrine

Pink grapefruit granité with an infusion of 5 seeds

Fresh fish dish, with a herb risotto

Almond cigarette biscuits, roast peach,
Strawberry juice and white wine sorbet

Drinks included :

An aperitif as well as a selection of wines chosen by the sommelier, a choice of mineral waters, coffee

The adventure ends...

After this memorable lunch it will unfortunately be time to resume the journey home...
